

My Strength Is My Lord

So restful is the evening time
When my busy day is done,
I think about the years gone by
And those that are to come.

My precious Lord will guide me
Tho the years sometimes seem long,
I'll never falter from His path
He will keep me from all wrong.

Until the day that's sure to come
When I'm standing at His side,
My faith will keep me going
For I know I'll never die.

Obituary

Bernice Beach was born in Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, NY, on May 27, 1933 to Clarence and Gertrude Miles who preceded her. She was 1 of 12 children.

Bernice attended the school of home making. She then met and married Robert Marion Beach from Walter Borough South Carolina. Out of that union she had two children, Robert Beach and Christine Cobb. Bernice entered the work force and worked for Pathmark where she retired from in 1995.

She was a member of First Baptist Church for over 20 years of which she was most proud. It was here that her faith and love for God grew. She loved going to church and was a faithful member. As a member she joined the Bereavement Choir and attended Sunday School so she could become more familiar with the word of God. Her faith in God was very important to her. She loved everything about her Church. The Pastors, members and the different programs and clubs. She never wanted to miss a Sunday unless she was really ill. She knew the importance of having Christ as Her Savior.

Bernice knew how to dress for every occasion. She was very independent up until her demise. Bernice loved family gatherings. She loved sewing and making drapes. She prepared for church on Saturday by cooking Sunday dinner on Saturday and choosing her outfit and polishing her nails. Friends referred to her as "Aunt Bern" even though they were not related because she made them feel special. She loved music and a good time. She didn't like drama of any kind. She felt that any problem between family or friends could be resolved if they were willing to communicate instead of wasting precious time holding grudges and being angry.

She was preceded in death by her late husband Robert Marion Beach, 4 sisters: Adrienne Banks, Harriet Cook, Doris Miles and Gloria Grant. 2 Brothers: Melvin Banks, Ray (Dubar) Banks. 1 Son in-Law: Larry Cobb, 1 Daughter in-law; Glenette Beach and 1 Granddaughter Alicia Cobb.

Bernice leaves to cherish her memory, her two children, Robert Beach and Christine Cobb: 2 sisters, Ruth Greene and Madeline Banks: 3 brothers: Harold Banks, Thomas Banks and Gerald Banks: 2 grandchildren: Lakeisha Price (Richard): Sharod Beach (Rachel): 1 Great Grandson Xavier Beach: 4 brother in-laws: Clyde Beach, David Beach, Edward Beach and Dwayne Beach: 4 Sister in-Laws: Katherine Campbell, Prenice Beach, Iris Beach, Gilda Banks, Mitzy Banks, Vicki Banks and a host nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
