

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Obituary

Bobbie Curtis Cowan was born February 9, 1946 in Alabama to the late Roosevelt and Loreen Cowan. Bobbie departed this life at his home on Friday, March 27, 2020 at 11:30am.

Bobbie joined the Star Bethel Baptist Church in Alabama, at an early age. He enjoyed fishing, watching westerns and cartoons and very much enjoyed spending time with his family. Bobbie was a great man with a good heart.

Bobbie graduated from Marengo High School in Alabama and moved to New York in 1966. He married his 1st wife Dorothy Mae Williams in 1964 and to this union one child was born, Angela Cowan.

Later in life Bobbie married Novella McBryde and their union lasted until his death.

Bobbie was preceded in death by three sisters, Elizabeth Cowan, Mary Fair, Bettye Hardy and one brother Roosevelt Cowan, Jr.

Bobbie is survived by his wife Novella Cowan (Bronx, New York), one daughter Angela Cowan (Bronx, New York), seven sisters Ruth Mae Grayson (Dixon Mills, Alabama), Lois Cowan (Saint Albans, NY), Willean Cowan (Brooklyn, New York), Bernice Jones (Dixon Mills, Alabama), Judy Carlton and Loretta Anderson (Thomasville, Alabama) and devoted sister Debbie Booker (Bronx, New York). Bobbie is also survived by eight brothers-in-law, six sisters-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
