Obituary

We gather here today in the loving memory of Derrick Brown. A loving Husband, Father, Grandfather, Uncle, Father In-Law and Friend so that we may acknowledge and share both our joy in the gift that his life was to us, and the pain his parting brings.

Derrick Brown was born to Joseph Nathaniel and Marjorie Seville Brown in the Parish of Clarendon on the beautiful Island of Jamaica W.I. January 31, 1950. He was the fourth of seven children and was a very compassionate and gentle man who loved his family and loved ones Dearly.

On November 27th 1985 Derrick fell in love and married his beautiful wife Delores Agatha Pinnock their union produced four wonderful children. Derrick made it his business to do whatever it took to provide for his family; while living in Jamaica he would sometimes do farming and carpentry to make sure that his family was taking care of.

In July 1997, Derrick migrated to the United States with his 4 children to join his wife Deloris Agatha Pinnock-Brown where they continued to work together to provide the best for their Family.

Upon arriving in the United States, Derrick would continue to learn new trades. He worked in various industries as well as in the healthcare sector as a medical professional to provide for his family. He was a very dedicated worker and was very proud of his profession making a difference in his community and to the people he encountered.

Derrick was very active in his church, he would serve in many capacities including the youth department as well as being a deacon. He had a passion for music as an amazing guitarist and had a melodious singing voice that brought joy to many. He will be missed dearly and we have hopes to continue the legacy of our compassionate hero, father, husband, and friend.

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever.*

Acknowledgement
