

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Obituary

Judith Viola Armstrong Morrison was born on July 26, 1951 to Henito Henry Cline and June Ianthe Harrison Cline Roberts in St. Thomas Virgin Island. Affectionately known as, "Mama Judy!" Judith the first of twelve children.

At age of 9, she moved to Jamaica Queens, New York to live with her aunt Ella Mae and her two cousin Cassandra and Gus. As she enjoyed her teenage life with her cousins, she and Cassandra developed a club, called "The Delta Eight". They enjoyed sewing their outfits to go hang out at parties. Judith met a young man named, George Quincy Armstrong. The two became high school sweethearts and graduated from John Adams High School. They later married in 1970 and moved to Bed-Stuy Brooklyn and then rooted their family in East New York where they raised five children. There she opened her home as a family daycare provider.

Judith wanted to strengthen her bond with God so she became a Jehovah's witness in 1983. Then later became a foster parent and decided to adopt a little baby boy. She was a great wife, a loving mother, a talented seamstress and artist. Even after mastering all that, Judith wanted to better provide for her children. So, in 1997 she went to work at P.S. 325 as a Paraprofessional Educational Assistant. While working there she attended Touro College in Brooklyn, there is where she obtained her Associates Degree in Education. Although Judith and George were no longer wife and husband, she continued to raise her children. Her wit was sharp, when asked how do you feel? She would quickly reply, "with my hands!" She was funny and outgoing, she loved music and going out with her best friend Debbie. Later Judith married Steven Morrison SR. The two moved to Toms River, New Jersey where they bought their forever home. She retired in 2011, and her and Steven enjoyed loving God, their blended family, shopping and traveling. Judith was an eclectic shopper and dressed amazingly. She loved her bold colors!

Judith departed this world on March 29, 2020 at 10:23 am. Nevertheless she will be remembered as a wonderful wife, a super mom and a great friend!

Judith was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Karen, George and her little cousin Tavis.

Judith leaves to cherish her memory, her husband Steven, her children Telisha, George, William, Thomas, Robert, Kris, Angel, Kizzie, Bryant and Steven Jr.; her one daughter-in-law Linda; her sisters Laida, Marlene, Alicia, Arlene, Rachel and Josette; her brothers Robert, Richard, Henito, Douglas and William; her grandchildren Kamel, Keenen, Krysta, KeYianna, William Jr., Thomas Jr. Kamal, KeYon, Shaniya, Taliyah and Cory; her great grandchildren Layla Marie, Hunter, Jayce and Heavenly; her Aunt Ella Mae; her two cousins Cassandra and Gus; her best friend Debbie; and a host of loved ones and friends.
