Obituary

Elsie Riche was born on November 27, 1981 to Marie Auxa and Joseph L. Riche in Nyack, New York. Elsie was called home on April 3, 2020 at the age of 38.

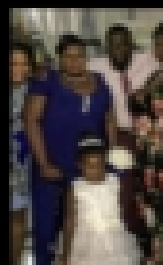

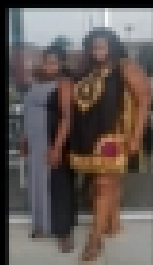

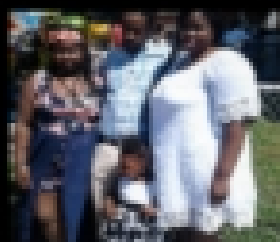

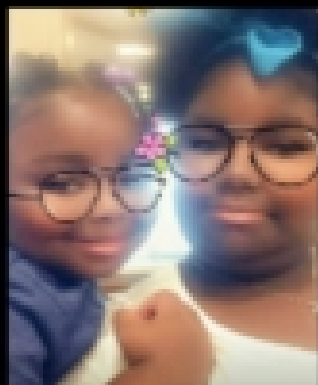

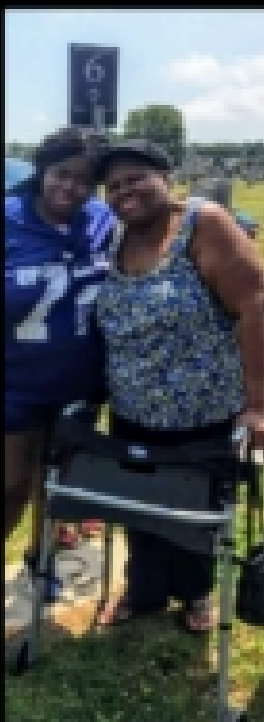

Elsie was educated as a child in the Irvington public school system and received an associate degree from Essex County College and further her education at Best Care College where she received her Nursing degree. Elsie all was dreamed of being a nurse since she was a little girl. Elsie would put on her uniform and ID with so much pride. Elsie went on to work at South Mountain health rehabilitation facility. Elsie Loved all her patients and would go the extra mile to put a smile on her patients faces. Resident's and staff looked forward to seeing and enjoyed working with her.

Elsie was a caring person who would give anything and everything she had to anyone in need. Elsie loved to cook and officially took over the tradition of a big family Sunday dinner from her mom. Elsie made sure her neighbors received a plate on Sundays and big holidays. Elsie loved to entertain friends and family especially when the NY Giants were playing. Elsie also loved to travel with her partner in crime her brother Jr. Elise made every sibling feel they were her favorite. Mom is known as her world, Pinky "the sheriff", Wallace "the husband", David "the chill partner", Victor "the partner in crime", Dianna "first baby", and Greta " free physiatrist". Elsie loved her friends and consider them family. In her words "can I say something" and everything like that meant she wanted talk. She loved and loved hard. Elsie embraced everyone, made them feel loved.

Elsie is preceded in death by her beloved grandmother, Marie Celian, father, Joseph Riche, the father of her two beautiful girls, Kaizen D. Crossen, and her childhood best friend, Brooklyn.

Elsie is survived by: her mother, Marie Auxa; two daughters, Easada E. Crossen and Kaziah K. Crossen; six siblings, Pinky, Wallace Elysee, David Elysee, Victor Seme, Dianna Duverne and Greta Johnson; one uncle, Gethau Auxa; one Aunt, Marie Jean; two cousins, Shirley Jean and Steven Nelson; and a host of other relatives.

There are no words to express the void that is left by the passing of our beloved daughter, mother, sister and friend. As God opens his gate to greet his new found angel, Elsie legacy and memory will be carried on by her loved ones.
