Reflections of Life

Johnathan Cain was born at Harlem Hospital in Manhattan, NY to William Cain and Daisy Cain. He was a beautiful big baby which is why we gave him the name Biggie Smalls. He attended P.S. 108 Public School, then he went on to R.T. Hudson Elementary graduated then went to Northeastern High School for one year then went to DeWitt Clinton High School. Johnathan worked tirelessly as a Security Guard for over 15yrs at Madison Security Co until 2016 when his health was put on hold and he had to go on disability. His favorite hobbies are playing online games with his friends Richie, Rick, and others. Football, basketball, wrestling and drawing when he was a teenager.

He was predeceased by his older sister April Cain. He is survived by his father, William Cain and mother, Daisy Cain; brother, Christopher Cain; sisters, Victoria Cain, Donella Cain, Leeandra James, Shakenna Cain, Shakira Cain, and Shanella Cain; one brother-in-law, Tyrone James; uncles, Tyrone and George Davidson; aunts, Amelia Hawkins and Theresa Abdul, a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, Godsons and a host of so many friends and in the community where he lived.

Johnathan loved his family especially his mom whom he called dear, he took his role as protector seriously for his mother and loved ones he also was a caregiver to his cousin Hindia Miller. He has left a void in our house and hearts that can't be replaced, but we look forward to that day when Jesus comes and burst through the clouds to raise the dead in Christ first and we who are alive and remain will meet him in air and forever we will be reunited with our loved ones and we will never depart from one another again. This is the hope we have and peace God has given us.

Lovingly Submitted the Cain and James Family
