Obituary

Gladys Delores Dickens was born on December 18th, 1934 in Panama City Panama.

She is the daughter of the late Sandy and Edna Layne. Gladys was the first of six children and went to school at Pedro J. Sousa in Panama City Panama.

Gladys was baptized into the spiritual Baptist Faith at the Center of Faith in Panama under the leadership of Mother Armensin Calidonia. Gladys married Rev. Roy Dickens on August 6th, 1956 and from this union they had four children, and they were married over 50 years.

Gladys felt the call of God over her life and that led her to open a church on 13th Street Rio Abajo by the name of St. Mary's Christian Spiritual Church. In 1983 she got the opportunity to come to the United States with her family, and continued to serve in the church in Panama, and in the new found Church, in New York City called Revival Our Mission. Mother Gladys as everyone called her, worked for a number of years as a nurse's aide until she retired.

She was preceded in death by her brother Reynaldo Robinson (deceased,), and was survived by her brothers and sisters, Delbert Layne, Vilma Layne, Bernie Dell, and Yolanda Kelly.

Gladys left to mourn her her husband, Reverend Roy; her children, Rogelio, Ernesto, Carmen, and Maria; grandchildren, Rogelio Dickens, Isaac Dickens, Jessica Smith, Katiana Dickens, Antonio Smith, Jasaah Dickens, Yadira Dickens, Takiah Stanley, Emmanuel Dickens, Jonathan Dickens, Julissa Dickens, Roy Dickens, and David John; great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. Gladys will be missed. we love you mother Gladys.
