Obituary

Phyllis Venora Wilcox Salmon, age 86, passed away peacefully at her home on April 26, 2020 after a long fight to dementia. She was born on March 24th, 1934 in St. James Parish to parents Mirelda Stennet and Edward Wilcox.

Phyllis was a woman who paved her own way from the start. She made a living as a highly skilled seamstress. As she worked tirelessly to provide for herself and her children, she never failed to show continuous love to others, family and friends alike. She was a joy to everyone she came in contact with. Phyllis was a great listener, a master storyteller, and a woman who always “said it like it was”.

She married Henry Salmon on January 13th of 1965 in Kingston, Jamaica.

She was a selfless woman who gave endlessly and many can agree to the statement that she was like a mother to many.

Phyllis prided herself on hard work and determination in all things and she instilled these values in her children and grandchildren every chance she got. There was no obstacle too high, she always made the impossible possible.

Phyllis is survived by her husband in addition to her four children, Horace, Marlene, Andrea, and Barbara. She also left behind five grandchildren: Melissa, Roy, Jhanelle, Sheldon, and Saidah, a great grandson named Harrison, her siblings Uda, Clover, Jack, and Olive, a host of nieces, a nephew, other family members, and numerous friends. She will be so dearly missed and is forever embedded within all of our hearts.

You rest in the arms of angels
In a place of peace and love
Watching over me always
From heaven up above

You guide me through my worries
And help me through each day
Always by my side
You never went away

The bond cannot be broken
Made from love so pure
Death does not break the bond
It lives on forever more

You rest in the arms of angels
Free from illness and pain
Waiting for the day
We are together once again
