Obituary

Adlin Raslin Thompson, was the daughter of Esther Thompson-Kelly and the late James Ible. She was born in the village of Cayon on the beautiful island of St. Kitts/Nevis on October 20, 1963. She was the 11th child of her mother and the fifth child for her father. She loved all of her siblings equally.

Adlin attended the Cayon Primary School and Cayon High School. She later travelled to St. Thomas where she resided for 2 years and later migrated to New York. She married Rudolph Isaac and they had 2 children, Mario and Shakira whom she deeply loved and admired. Her precious daughter Shakira departed this life on December 31st, 2004 at the tender age of 14. She was devastated at this loss. Her son Mario with whom she shared her pain and loved dearly became her support, confidant and friend.

Adlin became a grandmother to Mario's' two beautiful children, his son Kyle and his beautiful daughter Kelechi. They were the pride of Adlin's life. She loved spending time with them and always shared her admiration for her grandchildren. Adlin was the proud member of Mount Carmel Pentecostal Church where she was baptized last year and gained membership of the church. She consistently supported various organizations like the Green Valley Global Inc. and Cayon High School class reunions.

Adlin worked at Isabella Nursing Home for over 20 years and at New York Presbyterian Hospital for 15 years. She was treated like family more than a staff member.

Adlin had an exceptional heart which captivated the existence of her many friends. She was always on the phone with someone whether it was her cousin Benson in England, her friend Tavelyn (Cayon) her cousin Amorel (Boston) and many others. Adlin loved to travel with family and friends on cruises, to Atlantic City and would occasionally travel back to St. Kitts at least twice a year.

Adlin leaves to mourn: her mother Esther, her son Mario, her daughter in law Ugochi, her grandchildren Kyle and Kelechi, her husband Rudolph Isaac, her sisters Nagreta, Veronica, Daisy, Louvena, Marjorie, Virginia, Gleneva, Evander, Verita, Blondina, Lynn, Donna and Phynora. Her brothers Austin, Mervin, Errol, Martin, David, Wesley, Carl, Tony, Eddie and many nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends too numerous to mention. Mourning her loss are also her pastor Judith Esdaille and her husband Elder Esdaille, along with the church family, her best friends Arlene and Carol whom she loved and travelled with often, her friends and colleagues at New York Presbyterian Hospital, and Isabella Nursing Home in Manhattan. Not forgetting her many family and friends in Cayon.

She lived an adventurous life and will be remembered as a cheerful person. Her smiles lit up a dull room and the hearts of many. Sleep in peace, daughter, mother, sister, aunt, cousin and beloved friend. You are just a memory away. Rest in the everlasting arms of God.

TRIBUTE (Mount Carmel Pentecostal Church)

To the family of Sis. Adlin, Mount Carmel Pentecostal Church, Inc. expresses our sincerest condolences. Additional words are inadequate, we hope our presence and support for you all is felt. Adlin was soft spoken, unassuming and extremely pleasant. We thank God that as a church we got the opportunity to support her in her walk with the Lord from confession to baptism and membership. She will be missed, may her soul rest in peace. Pastor Judith & Elder Moulton Esdaille

How Great Thou Art

O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
And when I think of God, His Son not sparing
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in
That on the Cross, my burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to take away my sin
When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And lead me home, what joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow with humble adoration
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art

It Is Well with My Soul

When peace like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll
Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul
It is well (it is well), With my soul (with my soul),
It is well, it is well with my soul
Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control, That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul
My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought, My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more, Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, o my soul
It is well (it is well), With my soul (with my soul), It is well, it is well with my soul
