Obituary

Desmond S. Lovell was born on June 25, 1957 to Gloria Young and Alphonso Bettancourt in Belize City, Belize, Central America.

Desmond migrated at the age of 8 years old to join his mother Gloria to continue his education in becoming a craftsman jeweler.

Desmond grew up in Brooklyn, New York where he attended and graduated from South Shore HS where he studied the art of making jewelry.

Upon Desmond graduation he was offered a position as an intern by Mark Jewelers New York, NY where he later landed a full time position as a "diamond setter".

In his later years he changed his career path and decided to become a truck driver employed by The Sun Star Company in Brooklyn NY at the time of his passing.

Desmond was considered to be a handyman. Whatever he put his mind to it was done with confidence and determination.

He was a good father, friend, uncle, son, and brother. Anyone who had the opportunity of knowing him always would say he showed them unconditional love.

Desmond leaves to mourn his mother Gloria, sister Dionne, daughters: Stacia and Kimberly Lovell, sons: D'Shaun, Desmond Jr, Joshua, Dylan and Christopher nephews: Andre, Edison and Michael a host of aunt's, cousins, family, and a host of friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
