Lillie Mae Foy

April 4, 1954 - May 15, 2020

Obituary

Lillie Mae Foy was born in Emelle, Alabama, on April 4, 1954 to Emmitt and Maggie Foy. Lillie was known affectionately as “Gully” by all her relatives. Along with her mom and other siblings, Lillie moved to New York in the late 60’s. Lillie attended and graduated from Brandeis High School. She started her career at the Queens Borough Library in July 1980 and worked there until her retirement in April 2020.

She decided to dedicate her life to serving JEHOVAH in 1982. She was baptized and became a regular pioneer. From that point on Lillie wanted everyone to know about JEHOVAH. She always talked about JEHOVAH to anyone who would listen. On the trains, buses, sitting on the park benches. Her goal was to help people gain an accurate knowledge of God's purpose for mankind. She was delighted years later when one of her sisters made a dedication to JEHOVAH and got baptized.

Lillie was a caretaker and loved taking care and telling others what to do. She was a giving person. She was mild and quiet. Her sister said she would tell Lillie to “take action” when there was an injustice done to her. Lillie’s response was, “JEHOVAH will handle it”. Her sister said JEHOVAH did handle it. Lillie’s faith in the truth and love for JEHOVAH is what drew me to the truth said her sister.

Lillie had the opportunity to study the Bible with all her siblings and countless others. Lillie passed away quietly on May 15, 2020. Her mom noted that “Gully lived quietly and passed away quietly”. Lillie impacted many lives in a positive way. She will be greatly missed.

Lillie “Gully” leaves to mourn: her mom, Maggie Foy; four sisters, Rena, Janet, Annette and Ann Foy; two brothers, Johnson and Richard Foy; her nephews, Jonathan Foy (Shalisa) and Willie Harris (Shalaya); and a host of great nieces and nephews, family and friends.

*With you is the source of life;
by your light we can see.
- Psalm 36:9*

*And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.
The former things have passed away.
- Revelation 21:4*

Interment
Mt. Rest Cemetery
Butler, New Jersey

Job 14: 14-15

If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service Until my relief comes. You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands.
