Millicent's Debut

Millicent Agatha Jarvis was born on June 24, 1924 to Theresa Leona Jarvis and Wycliffe George Jarvis. She was an only child and was an amazingly loving and devoted daughter.

Millie's Early Years

Millie attended Jane Addams HS for Academic Careers in the Bronx. Upon graduation, Millie began her lifelong career by working for the phone company "Ma Bell" until her retirement from AT&T.

Godson
Walter Saunders

Although Millicent did not have any biological children, she is survived by her Goddaughter Ella and her Godson Walter. She was like a second mother to them both. Millicent loved them, and they reciprocated that love. Ella and Walter both looked after Millie, especially Walter who stayed by her side, despite his health challenges.

Millie In The Middle

Millie embraced her West Indian heritage and traveled to St. Thomas often. She was an extensive traveler. On one of her travels, she even played Bridge with Actress Patricia Neil. Millicent was also an avid reader and an excellent crocheter! Millicent's favorite author was Walter Mosley

Interment

St. Raymond's Cemetery
Bronx, New York

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness, for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life; and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord forever.
