Obituary

Louis Marshall Ellis Jr's journey began on September 20, 1948 in Charlottesville, Virginia. He was called home on May 25, 2020.

He was a devoted husband to Pamela and a loving father to his children Louis III, Garrett, Lisa, Arthur and Raquel.

He will forever be remembered on this earth as an exceptional man who spent his days striving to provide for his family, care and lend a helping hand to anyone in need and simply fill a room with that genuine love for life that you seldom come across anymore. He was kind-hearted and welcoming to all he encountered, always making his sharp sense of humor bring a smile to anyone's face. The man had a heart of gold is an understatement.

Louis' passion for wheels and all things great never went unnoticed. Any project he got his hands on masterfully displayed his ability to produce excellence.

He is survived by his beloved wife, children, grandchildren, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles and countless faithful friends.

Louis will be dearly missed by all those he loved and whom loved him so.

“Your life was a blessing, Your memory a treasure. You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.”

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."
