Reflections of Life

Elmer M. Bazemore (a.k.a. Uncle L) was born in Windsor, NC on October 30, 1953 to George & Dora Bazemore. Elmer was one of six siblings.

Elmer attended elementary then high school at CG White School in Powellsville, NC. Elmer relocated to Liberty, NY. He later moved to Baltimore, MD but later made Paterson his home.

Elmer had a great love for boxing and cooking. He later developed culinary skills for cooking. Anyone who came in contact with him you would develop a special relationship. Uncle L as many called him he love to debate especially about sports or anything he thought he was right about. Elmer was a Dallas Cowboys fan but also liked Baltimore, Kansas City, and Washington he loved the Yankees.

Elmer had many jobs however chef or cook was his number one job. He worked at Carolina Aluminum, NC, among the jobs he was a short order cook at Two Fellas, Paterson, and was a cook at Laurel Racetrack in Baltimore, MD.

On Friday, May 15, 2020 Elmer M. Bazemore gained his wings.

He is preceded in death by his father and mother, George and Dora Bazemore.

He leaves to cherish precious memories three sons: Marcus Murell and Terrance Bazemore (Nicole) both of (Harlem, NY), Preston (Courtney) Bazemore, (Salisbury, NY); two stepsons, Justin Laurel (NC), Dion Laurel (Upstate NY); seven grandchildren; brothers, George Bazemore (Linda) Littlestown, PA), Hersey Bazemore (Diane) Ahoskie, NC; sisters, Barbara Bazemore (Paterson, NJ), Joyce Burnett (Liberty, NY), Dora Downing (Bloomfield, NJ); three aunts, Mary Cherry and Ola Eley both of Ahoskie, NC, Carolyn Bazemore (Wilmington, DE); special niece, Sonia Wiseman (Paterson, NJ); special nephew, Eric Downing (Bloomfield, NJ) and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, others relatives and friends that loved him dearly.
