Reflections of Life

Nakima Renee LaBoo, was born in Paterson, NJ on August 8th, 1979 to Marsha McKenzie and the late Raymon LaBoo .

She attended the Paterson Public School system and graduated from John F. Kennedy High School in 1997. She played baseball and basketball.

Nakima was a very outspoken person who didn't mind telling you how it was. She was loved by many including Drs and staff at the hospital. She had the soul of a butterfly light and beautiful. She had a spirit that lit up a room because of her determination and faith. She always kept her head held high and a smile on her face. She was a Leo for sure! She was a strong fighter that never gave up.

Nakima was called into eternal rest on Sunday, June 07, 2020 at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City. This is a battle she faced and conquered for many years. Now her body, mind and soul can finally rest peacefully.

Nakima leaves to cherish fond memories three children, Kourtie'r LaBoo, Dye'Mond Tabor, and Dye'Tier Tabor; two grandsons, Kameron Davenport and Kai'Den Tabor; mother, Marsha McKenzie; seven siblings, Surrón LaBoo, Charles LaBoo, Marcia Parker, Sharon Freeman, Seeray LaBoo, Stephanie LaBoo, and Barbara-Jean LaBoo; grandparents, John McKenzie Jr. and HESSIE McKenzie who she loved dearly and two very special cousins, Terike Gass and Tomeka Campbell and a host of other relatives and friends.
