Obituary

Audrey C. Watson was born to Rebecca Watson and Buster Robinson on May 24, 1957 in Harlem, New York. On June 14, 2020, Audrey C. Watson received her wings peacefully at the age of 63 after a brief illness.

Audrey moved to Brooklyn at the age of three where she was raised and relocated to Newark, NJ at the age of eighteen after graduating from Pacific High School. She started her career as an educator in 1992 for the Irvington Board of Education and ended her career at The Leaguers in Newark, NJ prior to her death.

Those who knew Audrey knew she loved her children and family dearly and enjoyed cooking for them. If you visited her home, you could always count on a home cooked meal. She had a passion for teaching young people and those who had the pleasure of learning from her would say she was strict but loving. In her younger years Audrey loved to go out and enjoy herself with family and friends. She enjoyed laughing, having a good time, and that occasional glass of wine. You could talk to her about anything and she would give you the best advice.

Audrey was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and companion.

Audrey was predeceased by her devoted husband, Jessie Crawford and her father Buster Robinson.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Rebecca Watson; her daughter, Alicia Crawford; son, Tarrance Watson; bonus children, Shanteir and Melissa Gordon and Jessie Crawford; grandson; Isaiah Hendry and bonus grandchildren; her sisters, Gloria McDaniel, Charlene Watson, Theresa Travis; brothers, Charles McCall Jr, Keith Watson, Kenny Watson; four sisters-in-laws; one brother-in-law; companion, Jerome and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

MOM

I still see your face before me
Your voice I long to hear
I miss and love you dearly,
God knows, I wish, you were here.
Tears fall freely from my eyes,
like a river, filled with grief.
My only comfort now, is that,
From pain, you've found relief.

Missing You
