Obituary

Jeannine Milhouse, 41, of Brooklyn, NY, passed away on Sunday, June 14, 2020.

She was born on May 8, 1979 in Brooklyn, NY, the daughter of Brister Hay III and Jennifer Milhouse.

Jeannine, affectionately known as Nene, was a loving and compassionate person who loved to be silly and have a good time. She had the most beautiful smile with her signature dimples that would light up a room. Jeannine loved family, reading, numbers and talking to her friends. She enjoyed comedy, horror films, and cooking for her family and friends. Nene could take the simplest of ingredients and “Nenify” it!! The relationship she had with her brothers, Brister and Christopher, was as maternal as it was fraternal. Nene was a wonderful big sister that taught them a lot and she always had their back. Her brothers will remember her as their “first best friend”. Her love for her mother ran deep, and their relationship was one true to their understandings of each other, their love for one another will remain eternal.

Most of all she loved and adored her children, they were her world. If you were lucky enough to be present when she gazed into her children’s faces, the pure joy radiating from her would blind you. Nene wanted nothing more for them than to have a wonderful life.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents, Minnie Wise, Brister Hay Jr; aunt, Delphine Wise and father, Brister Hay III. Jeannine is survived by her loving beautiful children, Jaiyana, and MaChi Milhouse; mother, Jennifer Milhouse; siblings, Brister, Anttownne and Christopher Hay; grandparents, James, Alice Wise, and Carrie Hay; uncles, Mark, Kevin, James, Thomas Wise and Christopher Hay; aunts, Ashley, Shelly, and Sandra Gould; best friends Ieshea, Keyuana, Nataya; partner, Jermaine Ward; cousins; John Brake, Jasmine Gould; numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, god sisters, half sibling, cousins and friends. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
