Obituary

Lillian Rose Miller, was born on March 25, 1951 in Montego Bay, Jamaica, W.I. to Percival and Beryl Miller.

Lillian's heart was as vast as the ocean, she gave generously and was willing to provide for others emotionally, physically and mentally. But her family was her main priority. Lillian came to immigrated to the United States of America in 1985, in pursuit of a better life for her family. America, or "farrin" as she would call it, meant a step out of poverty, a chance for a new beginning and most importantly better opportunities for her children.

Lillian worked tirelessly for many years as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) at Kingsbridge Heights Rehabilitation and Care Center. This profession was a testament to who she was. She was always known for her loving spirit and enjoyed caring for others, she consistently brought joy and comfort to everyone she had the pleasure of interacting with.

As the years passed on, Lillian decided that she wanted to see her children fulfill the dream she had hoped for them. Hence, she brought them to the United States of America to be with her. She would not rest until all her children were able to live and create the future she desired for them. Her strength and courage allowed her to forge this dream for her immediate and extended family.

She later met and married her long-time partner and love of her life, Linval Gabay on August 30, 2013.

Many knew her by different names, Mama Lilly, Mom, Lin, Grandma and Lillian just to name a few. In her later years, her devotion to her God and church was second to none. As long as she could walk, she was in church. As a devoted member she invited all to attend with her and listen to the word of God.

The Lord called her home on June 16, 2020; she was sixty-nine years old.

I know that she is happy both her immediate family and church family can celebrate her today. Her life and interactions with family and friend's alike was guided by this bible verse, Ephesians 4:32 — "And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave you in Christ". She loved everyone, even in difficult times, she loved us infinitely.

She will always be remembered as a person who strived to be the best version of herself no matter how many challenges life threw her way. She was a role model, a source of love, an inspiration, and most importantly a mother to us all. May we continue to live our lives as she did from this day on with love, compassion, empathy and understanding.

Lillian is survived by her husband Linval, her children; Wayon, Alvin, Bartley, Eric, Deston, Janese, & Brent. Her grandchildren; Troy, Kardene, Fabion, Davion, Kahlil, Daren, Destin, Destiny, Cameron, Demora, Zyniihah, Mcintosh, Kai'ri, Phylicia, Prince, Phillip, Shanique, Randy, Shakur and Jevon. Her great grandchildren; Kanei, Logan, Harmony, Collin, Carter; Brothers, Sister, Nieces, Nephews, other relatives and friends.

Isaiah 57: 1-2

The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

Philippians 2:16-18

Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

It Is Well With My Soul

*When peace, like a river,
attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot,
Thou hast taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul"*

Refrain

*It is well (it is well)
With my soul (with my soul)
It is well, it is well with my soul*

*Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blessed assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul. (Refrain)*

*My sin, oh the bliss
of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross,
and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul! (Refrain)*

*And Lord haste the day
when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound,
and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul. (Refrain)*
