Reflections of Life

Ruby Patricia Jackson was born August 22, 1944 in Hartsville, SC. She was the daughter of Rufus Lee Jackson, Sr. and Robbie Lee Jackson (Fields) both preceded her in death. After several years Robbie L. Jackson moved to Brooklyn, NY to raise her three children alone with Ruby being the eldest out of the three. While attending Thomas Jefferson High School Ruby met and fell in love with Oliver (Bubba) Middleton who preceded her in death. Their union was blessed with a daughter Carole

Later on in life Ruby moved to Paterson where she worked at the Paterson Free Public Library for approximately 7 years interacting with the young children and young adults that came there to learn more about their culture and music. Ruby then transferred to The Paterson Police Records Department where she worked for about 15 years until retirement. Ruby definitely had the gift of serving. She enjoyed ushering at her brother's church in Paterson (at that time called) Deliverance Tabernacle. She opened her home to anyone who asked her for help, assisting wherever she could to whomever approached her. Ruby also served the community by being a member of The American Temple 258 IBPOE of W for many years. She was a member of The Amazing Mets Social Club, bka "The Club House".

Anyone who knew Ruby aka "Grandma" or Miss Ruby, knew she loved Bowling, Motown Music, Dancing, singing (but never, ever knew the words) Lottery Scratch Offs and a good Pinochle or feisty spades game. At every family function Ruby's Fried Chicken was legendary....if you ever had a piece....then you know what I mean...Yum Yum! But most of all she LOVED her family!!!

Ruby leaves to cherish wonderful memories one sister, Delores Jeannette Dingle & one brother-in-law Parris Dingle of St. Stephens, SC. One brother: Apostle R.L. Jackson and one Sister-in-law Theresa Jackson, one daughter Carole Jackson-Reels and one Son-in-law George Reels II. Five grandchildren: Sheakia Jackson-O'Brien (John Paul O'Brien), Marquis Jackson (Melissa Jackson), Bobby Jackson (Leslie M), Del-Shawn Howard, DeVaun Howard. Ten Great Grandchildren: Kyla, Thalia, Reme, Gianna, Nevaeh, Naylonie, Lyric, Dallas, Alexander and Zoe. Three Nieces: Tia, Shaneeka and DeAnna. Three Nephews: Rufus, Jonte and Arturo. One special Uncle Jim Fields (Margaret). A large host of cousins, friends and co-workers.
