As a teenager she met the love of her life, her husband of fifty-two years. Together they created a family of twelve children. She was known as "mom" to many. She loved and treated all as her own.

She had a passion for collecting Coca Cola items, going to the casino and watching the Dallas Cowboys; but her greatest love was following her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren to their sporting events.

Survivors include her mom, Margie Martinez; five sons, Raul Jr., Andrew, Ricky, Steven and Gabriel Marquez of Casa Grande; six daughters, Alexandra

Montijo, Angie Campbell, Cecilia, Sonia, Renee and Marissa Marquez all of Casa Grande; six brothers, Carlos, Phillip and Mark Martinez, Bill and Rocky Martinez and Jesse Moreno; twelve sisters, Virginia Zamorano, Stella Ramirez, Connie and Reenie Martinez, Ester Torrez, Julie Baca, Catherine Ramirez, Mary Mendoza, Sylvia Garcia, Dolores Mata, Elenor Diaz and Betty Mathews; thirty-four grandchildren; thirty-nine great grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Raul Marquez Sr.; a daughter, Sylvia Marquez; her parents, Jesus and Clarita Martinez; her dad, Carlos Martinez; two brothers, Anthony Moreno and Raymond Garcia; and a sister, Angelita Moreno.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.*

*I've endured pain
and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.*

*But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.*

*You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...*

*You always told me,
"get some rest,"*

Let me sleep now, I've done my best.

*So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*
