Obituary

Douglas James Lowther son of the late Adelaide and James Henry Lowther, was born on February 25, 1960 at Misericordia Hospital in the Bronx, New York, now known as Montefiore North.

Douglas attended Clinton DeWitt High School and graduated with his High School Diploma. A few years later he sought employment and worked at United Cerebral Palsy of New York, Meals on Wheels in New York, New York and Leake and Watts Children Home, in Hawthorne, New York where he worked for thirteen years, later retiring as a Child Care Coordinator/Counselor.

Each day of life for Douglas also known to many as, “Dougie Fresh”, “Shameke” and “Goto” was an adventure that people gave him “A name of their own and a story to tell”.

He lived a full and happy go lucky life and was true to the word, Warrior, Street Soldier, Father, Lover and a Charismatic man in his own way. Douglas was the most humorous person you would want to meet, he was always cracking jokes. Douglas also enjoyed playing numbers, partying and socializing with family and friends. He loved cooking a variety of delicious foods, and having family sampling his food.

Douglas had a big beautiful smile that would light up a room and had a heart of Gold. He was always willing to assist in any way he could. He was just a wonderful human being.

He will be truly missed by many. There will never ever be another.

His parents, Adelaide and James Lowther and his brother Derrick Lowther predeceased him.

Gone too soon.

Left to cherish his memories: daughter Sharajah; two sons Lance and Marcus Lowther; his two sisters and one brother Lorise, Curtis and Cheryl Lowther; brother-in-law Rudy Coombs; two loving nieces Donisha and Natosh; three loving nephews Quintin, Joel aka JD and Curtwand; three loving grandchildren Jacob, Janyiah and Jaddiah; great-nieces Qyana, Chloe and Trinity; his loving & caring woman and life time partner April and her children Jamar, Yasmine, Steve and Beshon; a host of other family members and friends.

RIP; Father, Brother, Lover and Friend.
Till we meet again in Heaven

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
