OBITUARY

Harry Stevenson Suddreth was a native of Caldwell County, North Carolina, born on April 12, 1937 to the late George Suddreth and Annabelle Witherspoon Suddreth.

Harry was a Korean War era U.S. Army veteran who served his country with honor and distinction. He was a truck driver by trade who also worked as a parking lot attendant at Yankee Stadium for over 30 years.

Harry rarely met a stranger, a gentle giant of a man with a heart of gold. A devoted husband, loving son, brother, father, uncle and cousin; as well as a loyal friend to too many folks to list. Harry will be greatly missed by all those whose lives he touched along the way. One of the good guys has entered his eternal rest, after a long and fruitful life.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Edna Mae Suddreth; brother, James “Jim” Suddreth; son, Eric Mervin; daughter, Je’Nita Henderson; a niece, Ina Suddreth; and nephews, George Suddreth and William Suddreth.

He is survived by his wife, Shirley Suddreth; his sisters, Georgia Suddreth and Frances Hart; children, Wanda (Kenneth), Yul (Andrea), Cassandra (Hayes), Kent (Xhia), and Dante; eighteen grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, two nieces, two nephews, eight great nieces, eight great nephews, seven great great nieces, nine great great nephews, six great great great nieces, six great great great nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
