Obituary

Ali Campbell was born on July 5, 1988 in The Bronx, New York. He was born to his parents, Albert Campbell and Valerie Campbell.

Ali was diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy at a young age. He was totally depended on.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Valerie Campbell; and his sister, Rasheeda Campbell.

Ali leaves to cherish his memory: his brother, Tariq Campbell; his sisters, Khadijah Campbell and Aisha Campbell; his step-mom, Cheryl Campbell; his uncles, Raymond Campbell and Ricky Campbell; three nephews; one niece; along with other family and friends. He will be truly missed.

‘Allah, the Everliving, the Self-Subsisting, the Eternal; there is no God but He! He neither slumbers nor sleeps.

Everything in the heavens and earth belongs to Him. Who can intercede in His presence except as He wills? He knows what lies before us and what is hidden from us, and we cannot gain knowledge of anything except as He wills. For His is the kingdom, the power and the glory, and He guards and preserves the heavens and the earth without weariness; for He is the Most High, the Most Glorious One.’ (2:255).

‘Truly, no-one but God knows when the hour will come; He knows everything, from the source of the rain to the contents of the womb. No-one can know how much they will earn tomorrow, or in what land they are to die. In truth, only God has full knowledge; He knows everything.’ (31:34).

‘O believers! Seek help with patient perseverance and prayer, for God is with those who patiently persevere. Do not say of those who are slain in the way of Allah: ‘They are dead’. No, they are living, although you may not perceive it.’ (2:153-154).
