Reflections of My Life

"Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb"

Cristina Sanchez Rosado was born in Naguabo, Puerto Rico on November 12, 1949 to Gregorio and Juana Sanchez. Indeed she was beautiful, Cristina had nine sisters and five brothers, (eight preceded her in death).

In her teenage years, Cristina, her mother and sisters relocated to Paterson, NJ. Here she received her GED. She attended Eastside High School night school and graduated in 1968.

Cristina married her Puerto Rican sweetheart Pablo Rosado Garay on March 1, 1969 in Paterson, NJ. They had two adorable daughters; Sharon Lee "Charo" and Maria De Los Angeles "Angie."

Not only has she lived in Paterson, NJ she also lived in Reading, PA for several years. Cristina was a God-fearing, holy ghost-filled, sanctified, blessed, Pentecostal and prayerful Christian woman. She loved the Lord with all her heart and soul, she was faithful in serving wherever God placed her. Cristina was a sewer, a crocheter and a painter. Till her last breath Cristina never stopped preaching the word of God.

She leaves to cherish precious memories her two daughters; Sharon Lee Pagan (Samuel) and Maria De Los Angeles Rosado-Leon (Andres); four grandchildren; Eli Samuel, Jonathan, Antonio Ricardo "Rickie" and Michelle; her beloved six sisters; Adelina, Nilda, Luz Maria, Sabita, Carmelina & Lydia Sanchez; her gorgeous great-granddaughter Bella Rose Garcia; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." Even so, it is well with my soul. Saved from the wrath of God, we can enjoy eternal bliss with Him forever -Revelation 21:1-4
