Life Story

April 14, 2007 to June 26, 2020 (passed away early morning)
Nalani Madison Armstrong was born to Evella Hill and Malcolm Armstrong on April 14, 2007. She came into this world full of life and has been the same burst of energy ever since! Nalani, affectionately called Lana or Bon Bon, was an excellent student and excelled in her academics. She attended school in Newark and was known at Chancellor Avenue School up to the fifth grade.

Saint Francis Xavier School was her home away from home for the past two years. She completed 7th grade and this year she would have been moving on to the 8th grade year.

Lana was an entrepreneur and was currently in the process of developing a lip gloss line. She enjoyed doing hair and nails and would practice on her mannequins and her cousins. She also designed shirts. Lana loved to swim, dance, and make dancing videos. She considered herself a future YouTuber. She also loved face timing her family. She was kind, loving, generous, and would mother her younger cousins.

She is preceded in death by her grandfather Michael Wright, her Uncle Marcus Wright, and her great grandparents. She leaves behind her parents, brother, Xavier Armstrong, both grandmothers Sylvia Raymond and Lisa Dixon and her step grand dads. Her Aunts, Aprill Raymond, Cherise Raymond, Jacklyn Hill, Courtney Raymond, Daphany Raymond, and Jessie Armstrong; along with her Uncle Michael and Malcolm. A host of cousins that she was close too and a score of other family who mourn her loss.

Nalani absolutely adored her parents Evella and Malcolm and will be in their hearts forever!

Isaiah 25:8- He will swallow up death forever,
And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.
The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth,
For Jehovah himself has spoken it.*

1 Corinthians 15:26-And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.
