Reflections of Life

Cemel Michael McCubbins was born on May 21, 1954, in St. Andrew, Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies to the late Margarita Rachel Perkins-Ingram and stepfather Lloyd George Ingram.

Cemel attended New Day All-Age School in the 1960's and later went on to be trained as an auto body specialist with Reggie Morris Auto Body Shop in St. Andrew, Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies. In 1986, he migrated to the United States and resided in Paterson, New Jersey. He was employed by Butler Towing & Recovery Inc., Butler, NJ in the 1990's. Cemel enjoyed hanging out with his friends, playing music, and watching television. He loved his family dearly, especially his children, sisters, and brother. Cemel was preceded in death by his brother, Errol Vaughn McCubbins; son, Michael Mohammed McCubbins; mother, Margarita Rachel Perkins-Ingram; niece, Sharee Ingram and stepfather Lloyd George Ingram.

On July 3rd, 2020, Cemel Michael McCubbins passed away after an emergency operation.

Left to cherish his memory is his daughter, Stacey Ann McCubbins; granddaughters: Jayla Williams, Deandra McCubbins and McKayla McCubbins; grandson Maliek McCubbins; sisters: Marlin Ingram, Marcia Newton-Gaynor (Gerald Gaynor), Charmaine Ingram (Collin Davis); brother, George Ingram, Jr. He will also be remembered by his nephews: Teron Davis and Nikolai Newton, nieces: Deanna McCubbins, Tracyann Edie, Akelia Ingram, Sade Davis, Jackeisha Davis, Nedra Newton and Natasha Newton.

It Will Never Be Goodbye...

If I should go tomorrow,
It would never be goodbye
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars
You'll feel it from the heavens
And it will heal the scars.
