Obituary

Nathaniel James Washington, son of Stephanie Washington and Glenn Phillips was born on June 7, 1982. On July 5, 2020 he passed away at the age of 38 in his hometown of New York, New York.

Nathaniel attended the public schools of New York City and graduated from Art and Design High School. After graduation he attended New York University where he pursued a degree in Architecture and Design. During his lifetime he held various jobs and was a hard worker. He had the opportunity to work for The Norweign Cruise Line where his love and passion for being on the water and cooking led him to a position in the culinary department for the Military Sealift Command. He eventually married and out of that union, his son Ryan was born.

He truly enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He loved meeting new people from all walks of life, and learning about their culture and customs.

Nathaniel was the type of person who enjoyed making people laugh and simply put a smile on their face no matter the circumstance. He had a passion for music of all genres, loved to dance, watch cartoons and cooking. He had a spirit and soul which made him loved by many.

He was a truly devoted father to his son Ryan. Their bond was unbreakable and inseparable. They were nicknamed "SNOOPY and WOODSTOCK." He would unselfishly help others however he could, and would continue to do so even in death by giving others the gift of life, and we are so proud of his willingness to do so.

His wonderful life will be forever cherished in the lives of all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his passing: his son, Ryan James Washington; his parents, Stephanie Washington and Glenn Phillips; his brother, Wayne Burry, Jr.; his sisters, Jessica Washington and Ashley Burry; his grandfather, Alfred Douglas Clayton; and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles and friends who loved him and will miss him dearly.

"DAD"

- Author Unknown

If I could write a story
It would be the greatest ever told
Of a kind and loving Dad
Who had a heart of gold
I could write a million pages
But still unable to say, just how Much I love and miss him
Every single day
I will remember all he taught me
I'm hurt but won't be sad
Because he'll send me down the answers
And he'll always be MY DAD.

"BROTHER"

- Author Unknown

You gave no one a last farewell,
Nor ever said good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
and only God knows why.
A million times we will miss you.
A million times we will cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else can fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone,
for part of us went with you,
the day God took you home.
We will meet again someday
I know in a better place.
I thank God He made you our brother
While you were here on earth.
