Obituary

Lloyd Harold Hill was born on August 28, 1996 in Kingston, Jamaica to Harold Hill and Lovelet Jenkins. He graduated from Portmore High School (Portmore, St. Catherine, Jamaica) in 2014 and a year later migrated to the United States of America.

Lloyd worked in several industries as he searched to navigate what his true calling would be, from Janitorial services, security, and the restaurant industry.

Lloyd was known by many nicknames. Some hearing Lloyd's name today may not even recognize who we are talking about. Some knew him as “Juicy”, while others called him “Mackerel” and “Dodo”. To know Juicy was to love him. Everyone knew him as a quiet soul. All his family and friends knew him to be the one who rarely said a word (can't mash hands), but he loved to laugh and have fun. He loved his family and spent all his time always surrounded by his family. Family was everything to Lloyd. Most of his best friends were his family. Lloyd also loved playing video games and enjoyed listening to music.

Lloyd lost his father before he entered into the world and was raised by his mother with the help and support from his aunt, his mother's sister.

He was on this earth a short time but he will be forever cherished and remembered by his family and friends.

Lloyd “Juicy” “Dodo” “Makarel” Hill is survived by his Mother, Lovelet Jenkins, Eight Siblings, Kevin, Kimani, Karey, Caromi, Kadinnie, Cav, Cavan, and Jovan, his Paternal Grandmother, Eight (8) Aunts, and Thirty Eight first Cousins.

Lloyd will be missed but his memory will remain in our hearts forever.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.
