Obituary

Everett Palmer Sr. was born on July 7, 1947 in Brooklyn, New York to the late James and Jessie (Efferson) Palmer.

Everett attended schools in New York City and graduated from Franklin K. Lane High School where he studied and mastered the creative arts of woodworking, and mechanical engineering of which he received many competitive awards. Upon his graduation from high school, Everett was inducted into the United States Marine Corps where he served honorably during the Vietnam War as a mechanic.

Upon exiting the United States Military, Everett continued serving his fellow countrymen by joining the New York City Police Department where he was assigned to the 76th, 88th, 94th, 103rd and 113th Precincts – some of the toughest beats within the NYPD – until he was injured in the line of duty. Upon leaving the New York City Police Department, Everett returned to his passion of building, repairing, and creating with his hands.

With a heart of gold, Everett would continue his legacy of service to his family and friends whenever they found themselves in need. Whether it be a repair of one's house or living quarters, family or friends in need of transportation, or family or friends who were sick or shut in and in need of care – there was no better or more dependable ally than Everett Palmer Senior. The word “No” was not in his vocabulary.

On July 7, 2020, completing his circle of life, Everett Palmer Sr. received his wings and has gone home to see his beloved mother, father and son (Everett Palmer Jr.) who preceded him in death. Everett leaves to cherish his memory his children: Dwayne (Gwendolyn) Palmer, Aisha (Kenneth) Faulkner, Taryn Mclauchlin, Lamar Palmer, Alan Palmer, and April Palmer. Grandchildren: Jamal, Taneyah, Kyesha, Briyonna, Taylor, Jada, Justin, Tony, Kimiyah, Tremel, Rosario, Mychael, Amir, C'Kayla, Matthew, Drew, Madison, and Mackenzie. Great-grandchildren: Ty'Kee, Kennedy, and Madison Kori. Siblings: Cicel Palmer, Carol Palmer, Debra Palmer, Kenneth Palmer, Lawrence Palmer, Clyde Palmer; and an army of loving relatives and friends.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be so He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away
and although we love you dearly
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
