Obituary

Kevin Gilliam was born on June 26, 1957 to Fred Gilliam and Mary E. Gilliam. He was born in Harlem, New York. He was the fourth child of seven siblings. Kevin was a protector, a voice of reason and a guiding light for his siblings.

Kevin was educated in the public school system and obtained his High School Equivalency Diploma. Eventually he went on to receive a Master's Degree; and he worked numerous jobs.

Kevin's smile would light up a room. He was always calm, cool, collected and humble.

These are just a few words to describe him.

Kevin is preceded in death by his father, Fred Gilliam; mother, Mary E. Gilliam; his brothers, Walter Gilmore, Darryl Lee Gilliam and Anthony Scott Gilliam; and brother-in-law, Leslie Gaynair.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved wife, Theresa Gilliam, and from their union they had Candace, Cordero, Chavarr and his one grandson, Michael Bowe; one daughter-in-law, Myesha Gilliam; from his last relationship with Samantha Latimer another son, Zion; stepchildren, Mahogany and Taday; his loving sisters, Beverley Gaynair and Marian Lynn Blue; brother, Gregory Gilliam; sister-in-law, Tracy Whitmore-Gilliam; brothers-in-law, Charles Blue and Musfafa Bilal; sisters-in-law, Eva Green, Roslyn Gilmore, Lisa Angel and Lavinna Gibson; aunt, Carol Smith; a host of nieces and nephews that he truly adored; and a good friend, looked upon as family, Leonard Nelson.

*An Eternal Memory...
...Until We Meet Again*

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile if only I could have you back for just a little while Then we could sit and talk again just like we used to do you always meant so very much and always will do too
The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain but you're forever in my heart
until we meet again

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
