Obituary

Michael Lee Henderson was born on June 9, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland in Maryland General Hospital. He was the son of Sandra Henderson and Keith Watts.

Michael was from the the Ralph J. Rangel Houses. He came to New York when he was one years old. He attended Elementary School 46, MLK High School and TCI College. His true calling was being a chef and he loved cooking and being in the kitchen. He was a very hard working man that always wanted to make sure his family was situated.

In his youth, he played basketball and was known for being an excellent Double Dutcher. As he got older, he was known as a very social loving man—everyone he was around always had to smile or laugh.

He loved fashion. There wasn't a pair of sneakers that came out that he didn't have along with a matching hat. The love he had for his children and family was unconditional and it was always felt despite it being said or not. He loved to spend quality time with his children and family. Anytime he had the chance to he would call you, video chat or text you no matter what time it was. He was always up for a conversation.

He was the father of Michael, Tresor, Mink, Myheir, Myka, Mariah, Messiah and Masoni; the brother of Juanita, Zakia, Tonya, Kisha, Crystal, Corey and Jorge; the nephew of Sandra Hendricks, William Hendricks and Donald Henderson, Jr.; the uncle of Victor, D'Angelo, Jade, Jada, Jaidyn, Chelbie, Camorra, Charlie, Dorian, Nathaniel, Jessica, Destiny and Derrick; and the stepson of Jane.

Michael is preceded in death by his grandmother who raised him, Elaine Henderson, his mother, Sandra Henderson and father, Keith Watt.

Michael will always be loved and missed by the ones he has left behind and will always be remembered and lived through by his loving family.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
