Obituary

Andrea Walker was born on December 12, 1966 in Georgetown, Guyana to Cyril and the late Corinne Walker. Andrea was a happy child who easily made many friends. Andrea had big dreams, she was kind, generous and loved helping others from early childhood. Andrea's kindness, helpfulness and generosity were traits that remained with her until she passed away.

Growing up with Andrea was fun as she always had ideas of doing things that were fun. Sometimes her ideas got us into trouble but we had still had a good time. Andrea was passionate and fiercely protective of those she loved. On one occasion, in primary school, she taught a girl who bullied me a painful lesson and I never had a problem with that bully again.

Andrea was energetic and active. She ran track at school sports competitions while attending Christ Church Secondary School and could out run students older than she was.

After moving to the United States, with her family, Andrea continued her education at Boys and Girls High School in Brooklyn, N.Y. and at College. She pursued a career in Nursing and worked as Nurse until her sudden passing.

Andrea's children Michael, Kiersten, and Othniel were the light of her life and she worked hard to provide the best for them.

Andrea was a loved and valued member of her family and she will be greatly missed. Those left to mourn her loss are her children Michael, Othniel, and Kiersten; siblings Jeanne Natalie and Waris; Dawn Walker; husband Courtney Goulbourne; Father Cyril Walker; nephew Jabez; granny Elaine Hatton, uncles Samuel Walker, David Walker, Mark Sobers; aunt Patricia Barnwell, many cousins; plus a whole host of other family members and friends.

Submitted with love by her sister.

ROMANS 8:35-39 (KJV)

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Corinthians 15:50-58(KJV)

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.
