Obituary

Victor Tunji Ogunleye Omo-Olokuta, 72 passed away on July 18, 2020 at his home in New York City. He was born on February 27th 1948 in Nigeria to Papa Emmanuel Ogunleye Oginni and Princess Grace Jolaade Ogunleye.

Victor was a well-known soccer player at his secondary school in Ilesa, Nigeria before migrating to the United Kingdom where he studied at the Marine Engineering School in Liverpool. He then traveled to the United States of America where he continued his studies and graduated from The Engineering School of The City University of New York.

He was a dedicated and diligent employee who worked for New York City Department of Sanitation as a Mechanical Engineer for many years before retiring.

He loved people and that was evident as he maintained consistent communication with family and friends alike. Victor 's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by him understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which we live. He was kind and compassionate to everyone he encountered.

Victor is survived by his son, Adebayo; grandson, Carter Rogers Wright; a brother; cousins; nieces and nephews; along with countless family and friends who were blessed to know him. Victor Tunji Ogunleye will truly be missed.

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

Grieve not for me.

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I am counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes we're together again.
