Obituary

Rosalie Claudia Arthurs transitioned on Monday, August 10th, 2020. Rosalie was born in the Bronx, New York on December 7th, 1938. Her parents are Claude James and Annice Finan (both deceased); also her grandmother who raised Rosalie: Mabel Henry (deceased).

In 1947, Rosalie moved to Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and started her education at Holy Providence Elementary School. In 1948, she moved back to the Bronx, NY and continued her education at Public School 53 and Junior High School 22 in the Bronx, NY. In 1957, she graduated from William Howard Taft High School in the Bronx, NY. Rosalie pursued her career at a Business School.

Years later Rosalie married her husband, Sidney George Arthurs (deceased). Rosalie leaves behind their children: Sterling Arthurs, Vernon Arthurs, and Roseann Arthurs Handsford; son-in-law, Israel Handsford; granddaughter, Eliana Handsford; sisters-in-law, Berryll Parker, Sybil Stewart, and Myrtle Arthurs (deceased); furthermore Rosalie leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews-in-law.

In 2005, Rosalie retired from working for the Board of Education as a School Aide. Rosalie was a member of Saint Augustine Catholic Church and eventually continued as a faithful member of Saint Augustine Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church. Rosalie served as a member of the Food Pantry, Bible Study, and a member of the Sacred Heart Spiritual Society. Rosalie also leaves behind a host of friends from Our Lady of Victory Saint Augustine Catholic Church.

Rosalie has received certificates in her honor of appreciation for her participation in giving donations to the following charity organizations: Saint Joseph Indian School, Veterans Foreign Wars, United Negro College Fund, the Mayo Clinic for Alzheimer's Disease, Abandoned Baby Center, and the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare.

Rosalie was a loving sweet outgoing person who enjoyed socializing. Also she was a very thoughtful person that was always giving to others. The memories of her Love and Support, will live on forever.
