Obituary

Usie Lamar Miller, better known as Tim; was born January 31st, 1956 in Manhattan, NY to the parents of Rosie Miller and the late Usie Miller. His siblings include Fenton Boston, the beloved and missed Bernadette Miller, Theresa Frye, Aleta Crosby. Tim grew up in the Bronx where he went on to attend Job core and later enlisted in the National Guards as a Reserved. He later found a career in driving and most recently was working for the Board of Education as a School bus driver.

Tim was the most loving, reliable, adventurous and funniest person to be around. He enjoyed traveling, family functions and a good meal. He had a way to bring fun and laughter into any setting he was in. Whether he came dressed up in some corky outfit to a family get together or said a joke around a campfire, his humor and laughter was contagious. His giving nature and thoughtfulness always spoke volumes. He knew what everyone liked and what to bring. From devil eggs, lemon pies to a piece of watermelon he continuously thought of his loved ones and showed it. His generosity was unmatched and his loving free spirit is one we all loved.

Tim leaves behind his mother Rosie, his brother Fenton, three children Timothy, Qiana, Usie, life time partner Edith, grandson Timothy Jr., twelve nieces and nephews Maurice, Latanya, Doleta, Donald, Tiffany, Little Maurice, Shavonne, Jason, Arianna, Anthony, Noah, Little Jason and countless loved ones.

Tim's ability to be fun, outspoken, stubborn but yet caring was some of the many traits and characteristics that made him so lovable. His presence lit up any room, as he was sure to have made quite an impression on you. His physical presence will surely be missed, as he made sure he was always there when needed. However, his spirit lives and he will always be celebrated and within our hearts.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
