Reflections of Life

Lucille Hogan Campbell a beautiful, kind, gentle person was called home to be with The Lord on September 8, 2020. Lucille will be greatly missed by her family and many friends. Lucille was one of six daughters; Lucille is the beloved daughter of the late L.G. Hogan and Helen Louise Richard. Lucille life journey began in Lincolnton, Georgia on December 8, 1956 where she received her formal education.

Lucille loved life, her family and the many countless people she met throughout her life. Lucille would meet people no matter their financial status, didn't matter if you had money or no money, whether you were educated or uneducated or your racial background, if you was in need of a place to stay, or just a place to hang out and rest for a while, Lucille made her home available to you. But she really got excited if you came over and spend time with her and her boyfriend Maxwell House Coffee, whom she loved until the day she passed away.

Lucille house located on Fairmount Avenue, in Jersey City, was the place to be years ago, that's where you would find anyone that you was looking for, which included but not limited to family or friends. Often times neighbors would go to Lucille house for social gatherings and great conversation.

Lucille was a simple and modest woman, she didn't need much to function in life, she wasn't moved by money, expensive clothes, cars, or homes, but what she prided herself on was her unconditional love. She had a "HEART OF GOLD" always going out of way, for people in their times of need. You could always find Lucille home if she wasn't working, with a cup of Maxwell House Coffee watching her favorite soap opera on tv. Although Lucille didn't hang out in bars, clubs, and places of entertainment, she found refuge and joy taking care of and spending time with her children Rame, Deon and Ebony and later on in life with her grandchildren.

Lucille will be greatly missed, although she is forever gone physically on earth, her presence and contributions will forever remain flourishing for the countless young men and women she has mentored, helped and shaped to become productive members of society. There is so much more that can be said about Lucille Hogan Campbell, we will end her amazing life journey one of inspiration and helping others simply by saying, thanks for the memories and we will have a cup of Maxwell House Coffee in memory of you.

Lucille leave to cherish her memories, 2 sons; Rame Sutton of Georgia, Deon Sutton of Irvington, New Jersey, one daughter; Ebony Campbell, of East Orange, New Jersey, 4 sisters; Mary Hayes, Helen Shambly, Diana Hogan and Chris Peterson. 9 Grandchildren; Gianna, Zion, Jai'Dan, Jermia, Genines, Ma'Kayla, Kyrie, Amani, Aja and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.

Lucille Hogan Campbell was predeceased in death by her son Kelvin Sutton, Parents; L.G. Hogan, 2 sisters; Betty J Harley and Sue Dean Hogan.
