Obituary

The Lord lent us an angel. She completed her task and was called home on September 8, 2020.

Linda Anita Grant was born on January 15, 1954 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Roosevelt and Hazel Grant. She was the oldest of three children and the only girl. In 1959, Linda began her journey as a little girl in New York City where she proceeded to be educated.

Linda better known as the chef and fashionista of the family wore many hats. She was a mother, grandmother, nurturer, doctor, teacher, cook, stylist and an all around friend. Although she didn’t like taking pictures, Linda had a smile to die for.

Linda was preceded in death by her mother, Hazel; father, Roosevelt; brother, Edward; daughter, Darlene and granddaughter, Anita.

Linda leaves behind to mourn: her four children, Felicia, Ronald, Renee and Vickey; eight grandchildren, Tarnisha, Christian, Maliek, Destiny, Carl, Casheria, Jynita and Charrekett; eleven great grandchildren; one niece, Tena; two great nieces, Diamond and Jazmine; her close friends, Company and Alice; and a host of family, friends and love ones.

She will be deeply missed.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

In Our Hearts
We thought of you today. But that is nothing new. We thought about you yesterday. And days before that too. We think of you in silence. We often speak your name. Now all we have are memories. And your picture in a frame. Your memory is our keepsake. With which we’ll never part. God has you in His keeping. We have you in our heart. -Unknown
