Obituary

Gladys C. Moore was a dedicated mother with an entrepreneurial spirit. At age 74, she passed away at Montefiore Hospital on Saturday, September 26, 2020. She was surrounded by her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and family members.

Gladys Christina was born in Elizabeth City, North Carolina on January 30, 1946 to James and Mary Lou Williams. She was the 10th child of 21 siblings. She left home at a young age to live with her Aunt Dale. This was where her business ingenuity was first shown. She had a moonshine business. She had the liquor and an empty jar under the house. Everyone knew to put the money in the Jar or else!

Gladys is preceded in death by her sisters Shirley Mae, Carolyn, Teresa, Mila and her brothers Leroy (Duke), Haywood (Bimp), Robert, James (Calvin), Noah, Percell, George (Dink), Leon and two sets of twins that died at birth and her brother-in-law James (Poochie).

Left to mourn her passing are her siblings, Annie (Delores), Sandra, Columbus (Bud) and Michael and her brother and sister-in-laws, Charlene, Jackie, Caprice (Gloria), Andrew and a host of nieces and nephews.

Gladys is also mourned by her children, Evelyn, Victoria, Angela, Sharif, and Thelma. Her grandchildren, David, Jr., Shamel, Keshawn, Shaquille, Daysia, and Daiquan. Her great grandchildren, David III, Keshawn, Jr., Autumn, Hazel, Kymora, and Royal. In addition, her son-in-laws David, Shamel, and Ernest.

Gladys was known for being a devoted mother and a mother figure to numerous individuals in her community as well as within her family. She was a friend, neighbor and a confidant to many.

In her own way she made everyone feel special. She always gave whatever she had food, money, a place to stay, a listening ear to anyone in need. Gladys always had a hustling spirit – she was well known for her card games and fish fries.

She touched the hearts and souls of everyone she encountered. She ruled with an iron fist but with a warm heart. She will forever be missed. We Love You!

Don't

Don't spend too much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad;
I left to be with Jesus
And this should make you glad.
Don't waste your hours in grieving,
No need to feel distress;
I'm tired of life's frustrations
And had to get some rest.
Don't puzzle yourself with questions
Or try to reason why
Life here for me was ended,
It came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you
Feed it with your care;
Grow it with devotion
And spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving
Came in such a way;
We'll have another meeting
In God's eternal day.
