Obituary

IN LOVING MEMORY:

Ms. Cordelia Marie Griffin

Cordelia (Dee) was born to the late Mary Celestine Griffin and the late Rogers Mann on January 3rd, 1956 and later raised by her stepfather, Clarence Moore. She was the first born of four children, one of whom preceded her in death, Quentin Griffin. She was called home to the pearly white gates on September 19th, 2020.

Cordelia was born in Belle Haven, North Carolina and raised in New York City. She later met Antonio Fleming and together they welcomed their son and only child, Christian (Tony) Griffin. She was overjoyed with his birth.

She was educated through the New York City Board of Education earning her Diploma. She later joined the same Board of Education as a School Safety Officer following in her mother's footsteps. She attended Greater Refuge Temple in Harlem and later The Garden of Prayer. She worked with New York City School Safety for many years—then left and went on to work in Home Care which she loved dearly. She had a passion for helping people and caring for them.

Dee was loved and cherished by many. She was elated when she became a grandmother for the first time. Christian had her first granddaughter, Shanell Griffin then several years later, Makayla Griffin. She was especially ecstatic when she became a great-grandmother to Shanell's daughter, Paris Griffin. While she was not enjoying time with her family, she enjoyed cooking a homestyle meal that was great for the soul—lima beans, neck bones and cornbread. However, upon her illness she spent many hours with her family until her untimely death.

Dee leaves behind: her son, Christian Griffin (Monique); granddaughters, Shanell and Makayla Griffin; great grand, Paris Griffin; stepfather, Clarence Moore; sister, Violet Griffin all of New York; brother, Clarence Griffin; sister-in-law, Keisha Griffin; sister, Alice Mann; and brother, Roderick Mann; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,

But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

The Lord is My Shepard:
I shall not want.
He Make me lie down
In Green pastures.
He Leads me besides still waters.
He restores my soul.
-Psalm 23:1-3

To My Dearest Sweetest Beautiful Loving Mother:
There's are no words that can express how much I love you.
Every day without you will be missed dearly but not forgotten
As God called His child home to be at peace.
My heart is heavy, I don't know how I am going to make it through
But all I think about is you and the words you spoke always helped me through.

I love you Ma, until we meet again, I will Always Love You...Forever.

Love Tony
