Obituary

David Baldwin was born in Chestnut, Alabama to the proud parents of the late Cora and Albert Baldwin on June 24, 1940. He was one of three children to the late twin sister Annie Cannon and to his brother Albert Baldwin, Jr.

David went to Monroe County High School in Beatrice, Alabama. David migrated from Alabama to Harlem, New York where he lived. When he came to New York, he was a factory worker.

David was always a quiet gentle soul and he used to attend church regularly. He loved to fish with his brother, he enjoyed eating the meals his wife cooked, especially, when it came to the holidays. David enjoyed watching sports, listening to music and when the girls were younger he enjoyed taking them out occasionally.

David leaves behind his beloved wife Pearlie Mae Baldwin and they got married at Southern Baptist Church of Harlem, NY. David has two daughters Coretta Clarivil from Brooklyn, NY and Angela Baldwin from the Bronx, NY. He also leaves behind his brother Albert Baldwin, Jr. of New York, host of nieces, nephews and many other family members.

We loved you but God loved you the best.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
