Obituary

Pensacola Dixon (affectionately known as Penny) was born on August 14, 1942 in Bishopville, SC. To the Late Wesley and Ella Hollomon Robinson, Sr.

Penny attended public school in the Bishopville, School system. She came to NJ in 1958. She was married to the love of her life Bennie Dixon on January 9, 1960. To that Union was born Pamela Michelle and Keesha Monique.

Penny was employed at Lumifoil and RCA for some time, and then Frigidaire where she retired from in 2003.

Penny was a faithful & dedicated member of The White Rock Baptist Church in Linden, New Jersey.

Penny really enjoyed cooking and spending time with her friends and family every chance she could. She belonged to a traveling club called the "Socialite." She was an avid traveler and loved to sight see. Penny will be remembered for her chopped bar-b-que.

Penny was pre-deceased by her daughter Keesha, her Brother Wesley Robinson, Jr., her Sisters Ella Mae Robinson, and Mary Robinson.

She leaves to mourn her loving husband of 60 years Bennie Dixon, daughter Pamela (Philip), her beloved Grandson Khaleef (Haneefa) Great grandchildren Qailah and Aasir. Step-daughter Ella Mae (David) and Step-grandchildren David, Montrell and Faye all of Michigan. She also leaves her siblings, Willie Mae Mickens, Annette Robinson, Lucious Robinson, and Howard Robinson all of Linden, NJ, Vertie Mae Davis, and Marie Joy all of Bishopville, SC. Her Mother in law Corean Dixon, Her Sisters & Brothers in law, Cynthia Johnson (Wayne), Agnes Brown, Ethel Tony (James), Alex Dixon (Gloria), Robert Dixon and Dennis Smith. Penny also leaves many Neices, Nephews, Cousins and dear friends.
