Obituary

The bible admonishes us to weep when one is born, and rejoice when one goes asleep for the final time. It is with great joy and heartfelt sadness that we rejoice in the homegoing and mourn the passing of Dolores Quintano McCall who departed this life on Tuesday, September 29, 2020. Now she is able to join other family members who are waiting at the gate to welcome her. Her mother Vera Ferguson Quintano, her father Omordo Quintano, Sr, her son Emanuel Quintano, her husband James" Smokey" McCall, her sister, Jane Pryor, and 6 brothers.

Dolores was born on July 9, 1941 at Lincoln Hospital in the Bronx, NY. As an adult she devoted herself to Christ and helping those in need. She leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Tatia McCall; grandchildren, Natasha and Robert McCall; one brother, Donald Quintano; niece, Melvina Gilkes; step-daughters, Carmen, Sharon, and Carol; step-granddaughter, Janel, and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends.

Rest in peace Dolores for the Lord has you now.

Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be.

A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.

*We all have different journeys,
different paths along the way,*

*We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...*

*Our destination is a place
far greater than we know.*

*For some the journey is quicker,
for some the journey is slow.*

And when the journey finally ends,

*We'll claim a great reward,
and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.*

Acknowledgements

The family of Dolores Quintano McCall would like to thank everyone for their continued support given to the family.

May God bless each of you.
