Obituary

Alfred Lumpkin Sr., departed this life on Wednesday, October 7, 2020, after a long battle with illness. Alfred was born February 10, 1942, in Montclair, New Jersey to the Late Ella Mae Lumpkin and Alfred Walton.

Alfred graduated from Kearny High School in 1960. After graduation he began a career as a long road truck driver until his retirement in 1996. Alfred was a man of strength and service. He served his community by sharing his passion for sports, especially football, with the youth of the community. As a thirty year two-time champion, town league football coach he instilled the principles of hard work, dedication, and cooperation into all who had the opportunity to play under his leadership. Alfred was also a loyal fan and avid watcher of the NY Giants.

Alfred also had a large family, all of whom will continue to keep him alive in their treasured memories. Alfred is survived by his siblings, Willa M. Lumpkin Jackson, Cynthia Hayes Sanders (Robert), Lori Carter Davis, Joyce Carter, Ronald Lumpkin, James Hayes, Tyrone Hayes (Rozelyn), William Hayes (Rosalind), and Frank Carter, his children, Keith Sr. (Lorna), Kenneth Sr. (Catherine), Gary, Earl, Cheryl, Alfred Jr., and Isaiah, nine grandchildren, one great granddaughter, and host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends. Alfred was also preceded in death by his daughter, Karla.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the angry, I was cheated but to the happy,
I am at peace and to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon the shore
gazing at a beautiful sea,
Remember me.
As you look in awe at a mighty forest
and its grand majesty,
Remember me.
Remember me in your hearts, in your thoughts,
and the memories of the time we loved.
The times we cried, the battle I fought,
and the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will have never gone.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Alfred Lumpkin Sr. express sincere and humble gratitude to all extended family, neighbors, and friends who have opened your hearts to us in this hour of mourning. Every expression of love and concern has been a rich source of comfort and will forever remain in our memories.
