Obituary

Daisy Mae Williams was born on September 29, 1947, in Roseland, Louisiana, to Clara Mae and Jessie Perry, Sr.

She attended Mount Kingdom Canaan Grammar School.

In 1975 she relocated to Paterson, NJ, and was employed at Dutch Mill Market and Drake's as a mixer and baker.

She was formerly a member of Friendship Baptist Church, where she served on the Nurse's Unit.

Daisy was preceded in death by her parents; Clara Mae and Jessie Perry Sr., sisters, Joann Ginn and Elaine Davis, and brother-in-law; John Ginn, Sr.

On Thursday, October 8, 2020, Daisy Mae Williams, departed this life at home surrounded by her loved ones.

She leaves to cherish precious memories; her loving daughter, Donaisha Gilbert; grandson, Jhaydin Deavereaux; two nephews that she raised as her sons; Terrell and Troy Attkins of Paterson, NJ; one sister, Jean Sanders Love (David Love) of Amite, Louisiana; three brothers, Jessie, Jr., Ray and George Perry and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends. She also leaves behind a devoted friend of 52 years; Norman Selders.

Sleep in peace Aunt Daisy.

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.
Love your daughter, Donaisha*
