Obituary

Phyllis Rumph, daughter of Willie Rumph and the late, Henrietta Warren Rumph, entered into eternal rest Friday, October 2, 2020 at The Brooklyn Hospital Center, NY. Phyllis was born in the Bronx, NY on July 24, 1963. She was the oldest of 3 children: Phyllis Rumph, Anthony Keith Rumph and the late Norman Cory Rumph.

At an early age Phyllis was a faithful member of the Cauldwell AME Zion Church, Bronx NY, where she attended Sunday school, the Buds of Promise and performed with the Children's Choir. She attended and graduated from Julia Richman High School in Manhattan NY. There she developed her passion for dancing in the school's Talented Unlimited Program. Phyllis can "Cut a Rug". A skill she most likely inherited from her father, Willie "Fats" Rumph.

Phyllis lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures, often chatting on the phone with her brother, Anthony, enjoying an outing with her lovely daughter Ashley, who she cherished, and discussing her latest book readings with her cousins Arlene and Lisa. Phyllis was an awesome "Spades" player. She always looked forward to getting together with her family, especially at family cookouts, for a challenging card game of spades with anyone who was up to the challenge.

Phyllis leaves to honor her memory, her daughter, Ashley Rumph, her father, Willie Rumph, her brother, Anthony Keith Rumph, her nephew, Nolen Devante Rumph, her aunts, Fannie Rumph, Lucille Warren and Wanni Warren, her uncles, John Warren and Neil Warren and a host of loving cousins along with other loving relatives and friends.

Psalms 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
