Obituary

Patrick M. King was born on February 2, 1971 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Henry Pratt and Peggy Y. King, raised by Carol (Carl) Thompkins.

Patrick M. King received his early education in the Newark Public School Systems. He then graduated from West Side High School in Newark, New Jersey in 1988.

On November 19, 1994, Patrick began working for New Jersey Transit as a bus operator. He had been working at the Orange, New Jersey garage for the 26 years where he developed a close family relationship with his co-workers.

On Saturday, October 10, 2020, Patrick quietly departed this life at Mountainside Hospital.

Patrick's memory will be cherished by his wife, Fatimah A. King; his children, FaKeir Askew and Torian P. King. Patrick is also survived by his mother, Peggy King; sister Melissa Thompkins; two stepsisters, Nadine Williams and Tonjia Williams; two nephews, Shuman Thompkins and Lamar Coley; two aunts, Lorraine Williams and Valeria G. King; two uncles, Rev. Henry A. King, Sr. and Dr. Leon C. King; and a host of other loving relatives and longtime friends.

Patrick has been a father, brother, uncle, confidant and a good friend to so many for so long. He was loved and will be extremely missed!

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
