Obituary

Frantz Guerrier was born on March 12, 1951 in Port Au Prince, Haiti. He left Haiti in the 1980s and migrated to the United States of America. He earned a living working hard as a New York City taxi driver until eventually becoming a manager at one of the largest fleets in the city.

Frantz was very intelligent, funny and charming. In his spare time, he enjoyed reading, watching movies and listening to music. He loved to talk about world events and politics.

If you knew Frantz, you would know that he had a unique personality. Sometimes he was misunderstood, but what was clear was that he was loving and very generous. He would give his last dollar, without any hesitation, if someone needed it. That's the kind of heart that our "Frankie" had.

Frantz is survived by: his three sons, Djensky, Daniel and Djantz; his granddaughter, Kailyn; his sisters, Marie Carmel, Raymonde and Yolene; and a host of nieces and nephews.

He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
