Obituary

Desmond Montgomery Parcelles, affectionately known as Monty, was born December 18, 1943 to the late Stainton and Gertrude Parcelles in Kingston Jamaica. He graduated from Kingston College in Kingston, Jamaica.

After graduation, Monty worked as a Sub-Editor for the Daily Gleaner, Jamaica's largest newspaper. He worked there until he migrated to the United States in 1982 to join his family. While residing in Brooklyn, Monty worked several years as a Court Reporter and Proof Reader for the Brooklyn Civil Court.

To know Monty was to love him. He was an avid reader and loved to cook. He enjoyed sports and he especially loved children. The children that encountered him all loved him, he was affectionately their Uncle Mont. He was a loving and caring brother always considerate and compassionate. He was devoted to his family and friends.

On October 28, 2020, the final chapter of Monty's life was written. God gently closed the book and took him to be at rest. Monty has reunited with Christ in Heaven with his parents, Stainton and Gertrude Parcelles. To cherish his memories are: his two sisters, Beverley Lowe, Brooklyn, NY; Marva General, Philadelphia, PA; his brother, Cosmo Parcelles, Brooklyn, NY; his nieces, Jamila and Kalila; nephew Iniko; several grand-nieces; his favorite cousin, Michelle Bailey of Brooklyn, NY; his cousin Patrice Saddler of Memphis, TN; host of cousins, and friends who had a special place in his heart.

always thought of others first and help fulfil their needs*

And you're remembered with much love today and everyday*
