Obituary

Warren A. Kegler was born in Brooklyn, New York on July 20, 1959 to Charles A. and Elnora Kegler, and departed this life on October 23, 2020.

He attended Theodore Roosevelt High School, Bronx, NY and graduated in 1977. Upon graduation, Warren obtained a position with Stone & Webster as a mailroom clerk. His hard work, assertiveness, diligence and high regard for his work, led him to become a highly respected Supervisor. He also worked at the United Nations and Hertz Car Rental.

At an early age, Warren accepted the Lord as his Savior and was baptized and became a member of Creston Avenue Baptist Church. He was a sensitive, caring, giving and good-natured person who would do anything he could to help people.

Warren enjoyed playing paddleball, bicycling, and walking. He consistently volunteered for organizations such as Walk America and National Multiple Sclerosis Society. Warren was the event planner for the NYC Bike-a-thon as well. He was an active and present father in the education of his children. He was a member of the School Leadership Team; the secretary of the Parent Association and he was on the committee to elect the school principal. Warren attended school trips and parties which he chaperoned.

Warren leaves to cherish his sweet memory: two children, his daughter, Mya S. Kegler and son, Jeremiah B. Kegler; his sister, Brenda B. Canty (Burrell); one uncle, Marshall Floyd Wilkins of Richmond, VA; one aunt, Nellie Wilkins of Gaston, NC; the mother of his children, Frances Myrick; along with a host of family and friends.

The memory of Warren shall live on in the hearts and lives of many.

*Of course, there are the “whys”
And answers there may never be
But in spite of it all, we love you,
But God always loved you better than we.*

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
