

I'm Free

Words by Pat Rosby Armstead

Piercing, agonizing there I had lain,
My body and all so filled with pain.
I wanted to end my Journey down there,
To rid my body and free it of care.
And so you see I whispered a prayer,
That God would guide me safely there.
And so he did and now I am free,
Even though I know you will all miss me.
When you begin to feel lonely and blue,
Remember that the angels are watching over you.
And they will bring you comfort from above,
As they have safely led me home in love,
As you go from day to day,
Cry if you must but go on your way.
I am rejoicing as the days roll by,
Knowing full well, that I'll never have to cry.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.

Professional Services Provided By

Nesbitt Funeral Home

165 Madison Ave, Elizabeth, NJ 07201

Ph: (908) 352-7078

In Loving Memory of Deborah Ann Lawson

Sunrise
October 20, 1954

Sunset
November 2, 2020

Service

Friday, November 6, 2020 - 10:00 am

Nesbitt Funeral Home

165 Madison Avenue • Elizabeth, NJ 07201

Rev. Steffie Bartley, Officiating

On Monday November 2nd 2020 God freed Deborah Ann Lawson from pain and suffering. She was a loving mother grandmother, sister, aunt and cousin.

On October 20th 1954 Gloria and Oscar Lee Lawson brought Deborah Lawson into the world. She grew up with her brothers and sister in New Jersey. Her late father's also called her his black gal, The family move from Newark Jersey to Rahway New Jersey in 1968, where Debbie remained until she passed away.

She worked hard to provide for her daughter as a CNA, transporter and secretary and volunteered at Robert Wood Johnson University hospital at Rahway.

She was a strong woman who enjoyed family gatherings she also enjoyed fishing, crabbing and boating with her grandkids and her long term friend Alan Slaughter. Deborah was educated in Rahway public school system and known by many in the area. She fought a good fight with cancer starting in the fall of 2019 until she expired.

Deborah Lawson is predeceased by her father Oscar Lee Lawson her mother Gloria Bernice Redmon, Her brother Oscar Lee Lawson and Gregory Lawson and sister Carolyn Lawson. Survived by her daughter Ronique Carrine Chiu, Grandson Daishawn Samir Hunter and granddaughter Skye Carrine Hunter. 3 brothers Carey Lawson, Eugene Lawson, Tyson Lawson and sister Dorothea Joyce Moore-Harris, Uncle Randy Lawson and Aunt Jewel Lawson, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and friends.

D
E
B
O
R
A
H

A
N
N

L
A
W
S
O
N